NOTE.

1. Certificates to be produced:
   (i) A certified statement of marks obtained at the Intermediate Examination or at the Degree Examination as the case may be, along with the application.
   (ii) A migration certificate in the case of a candidate coming from another University at the time of admission.
   (iii) A medical certificate of physical fitness from a Medical Officer not below the rank of an Assistant Surgeon.
2. Definition of Domicile: A student may be considered a Mysorean if he has been in continuous residence in Mysore, for a period of 5 years or more with the intention of making it his permanent home or if his father is or was a Mysorean.

Explanation: The domicile of a child irrespective of the place of birth follows the domicile of the father, just as in the case of all others who are legally dependent on their guardians. By reason of an accident of the birth of the child in Mysore, he cannot be classed as a Mysorean, if at that time the parent had no Mysore domicile.

A certificate by a Gazetted Officer should be enclosed in case of domiciled candidate seeking admission.

Notification dated 1st April 1951.

The First Year Class of the Mysore Agricultural School at Hebbal, Bangalore, will commence the 1951-52 session on Wednesday the 20th June 1951.

The purpose of the School is to train students in modern scientific methods. In the selection of students, preference will be given to those whose parents own lands in Mysore and are engaged in its cultivation. The minimum qualification required for admission is a pass in Mysore S.S.L.C. Examination, E.P.S. Standard of this pass being accepted. Preference will be given to the students who have passed the S.S.L.C. Examination with Mathematics, Science and Agriculture, as optional subjects over all other students who passed this examination with Arts subjects such as History, Geography, Logic, Hindi, Fine Arts, etc. The students are required to take part in all Farm Work. The course extends over three years. The first and second years will be spent on the Hebbal Farm and a portion of the third year on the Visvesvaraya Canal Farm, Mandya, to give them a thorough knowledge of running a farm successfully. The successful candidate at the end of the third year will be given the Diploma of Licentiateship in Agriculture (L.Ag.).

No tuition fee is charged from Mysoreans, but non-Mysoreans will have to pay at Rs. 50 per annum. All the final year students have to pay an examination fee of Rs. 15 each. Medical attendance is free. No rent is charged for rooms and furniture. Government grants a few Scholarships.

Students must, soon after their arrival, deposit Rs. 10 as "Caution Money", Rs. 10 as Sports Fee and Rs. 46 as Hostel Advance.

Applications for admission should be sent to the Principal, Mysore Agricultural School, Hebbal, Bangalore, in the prescribed form, which can be obtained from him. The application form should be filled by the candidate himself in his own handwriting and supported by certificates as required in the application form. It should reach the Principal on or before the 10th June 1951, along with the application fee of one rupee which is not refundable.

All candidates are required to interview the Principal before they are admitted to the School. The date of the interview will be notified in due course.

As this School is a residential institution it is compulsory for all candidates to live in the Hostel, which caters for both vegetarians and non-vegetarians separately. All students live in common at the Hostel under the control of the Warden. The Hostel is run and managed entirely by students themselves.

M. MALLARAJ URS,
Principal.
